

Prometheus Bound and Frankenstein

Aeschylus and Mary Shelley

What character from classical literature does Doctor Frankenstein have an uncanny resemblance to? Prometheus, the Titan who loved man more than the Gods of course! In this class we will begin with Aeschylus' stirring account of Prometheus' triumph and the punishment he experiences as a result of his success. We will then continue on to read one of the most famous works inspired by the story, Mary Shelley's classic tale of horror, Frankenstein.
